CIVIC AFFAIRS.

In about ten days the elections of this town will be called upon to nominate representatives for the year 1893. So far everything is perfectly quiet, not even a ripple seems to disturb the quiet harmony that at present prevails, and who shall be seated at the civic board next year it is time that the citizens should wake up, and select good men for these very important positions at their disposal. Other towns are already alert, and have candidates in the field while here it seems that few of our leading men are aspiring for civic honors. While the best men may not aspire for the honor of representing the town, it is the duty of the citizens to see that the best men available are brought out. There is a number of our citizens who have been good representatives in the past and why should not some of these men allow themselves to be offered as candidates for civic honors? Our town affairs now demand considerable attention, and men should be elected and only men who will give attention to the various duties pertaining to their office as councilors. The mayor should be a magistrate, so that every satisfaction of our town by-laws should come before him, and not as now be before J. P. who the council may by information. None of the councilors for this year has signified his intention of seeking re-election.

Mayor D. Davidson, who has faithfully discharged his duty as chief magistrate, will again seek re-election, and there is no doubt will be returned by acclamation. Mayor Davidson will carefully and judiciously do his part, and we trust will have associated with him six good men who will carefully and economically manage and adjust the affairs of the town.

It is stated there are 6000 intemperators in the American customs officials and that nearly every day foreign emigrants have some special kind of drink. Hardly any of them are suitably temperate.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent

Washington, D.C., Dec. 6, 1892

Hon. Island has no doubt afforded Mr. Cleveland good sport and a rest from personal opportunity. But now that he has quit shooting ducks he has a little correspondence to attend to. After his election Harrison received 1,500 letters daily and 2,000 a day upon his arrival at Washington—N. M. of these related to appointments to office.

The second assistant postmaster-general appoints ten times as many to office as a fourth government official combined. He has over 65,000 appointments, but about one-third of these receive each not over $100 per annum.

Reorganization of postmasters is now quite frequent, and some are trying to induce Democratic success. One writes: "I give up my post office plan for $1,000 to a Democrat will you appoint him and guarantee four years' tenure?"

Not one in ten of the thousand or so office holders who show up annually to the Capital get an office and those who do generally accept much less than they ask. Hundreds come with their families live at a hotel and wait—also a cheap boarding house and wait—on or off and linger around the tree trunk and wait, and finally borrow money for a return ticket on the Congress man. Unhappily only those place hunters are mostly people of some importance where they live, but the fever for holding office attacks them, and they abandon everything else to try for it. If they get it the pleasure of the life is theirs, so that they are never satisfied to abandon it.

Even the Congress-men who fail of re-election are eager to get back as clerks in the hall where once they exercised control over the affairs of the Nation.

A nice looking old gentleman approached the appointment clerk of the Treasury the other day with an application endorsed by letters of recommendation. When asked a question he said: "Please write

I am dead, I could not hear a sound of a cannon ball were fired close to my ear."

General McCarty thought this was a disadvantage for a clerk, but he asked the stranger to write his name and address.

The old gentleman shook his head. "It is impossible," he said, "I was not wrong, my hand is palsied."

The Civil Service door is the main inlet to office at the Capital. But the head-office is a hard business. It is a discretion under the rules and most of them are not enough to discover the candidate's politics though he be enveloped in the white robes of civil service.

But abuses do not neutralize all the benefits of examinations. As a rule they are fairly well conducted and lead to the selection of right men through the new appointees are mainly of one party. Even if this question be put to the candidates the answers usually reveal the man. One appointed under the rule of the Treasury subject to examination was asked to state the distance of the moon from the earth. His written answer was simply: "Not enough to affect the functions of a cashier." He passed so did another, who, being examined for employment

Owing to the heavy snow storm east, the train Tuesday evening was about five hours late.

Wanted—People to get the worth of their money by buying goods at the Post Office Bookstore.

The last state of the roads at present keeps the supply of wood and hay a shade below the demand.

Prices in Suptare are greatly reduced at R. T. Goodfellow's.

Ogilvie surveying party are in town, and have about completed their labors here for the season.

For Gloves, Mitts and Moccasins go to Bakers.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Oran, of the Queen's, is recovering from his serious illness, of the past few days.

One look through T. O. Davis' clothing stock will convince you the other clothing men are not in it.

The members of the Epworth League on Monday evening last spent a couple of pleasant hours together at the Methodist church.

G. W. Baker has the finest assortment of candy in town. See his 15 cent mixture.

Mr. S. McLeod secured the contract for the supply of wood for the Union school. The figures were $1.39 for dry and $1.49 for green wood.

During Xmas week Fish gives to every farmer child, whose parents purchase $1.00, or over, a toy or useful article to the value of 25c. Call and see the variety of gifts. A large stock of useful Xmas presents for sale.

The "Myrtle Navy" tobacco is not burdened with the usual costs which swell the price of most articles to the consumer, the firm orders no travellers whatever, their orders come to them instead of being sought by them. The merchant does not require to keep a large stock on hand, a swelling price with interest, for the factory is an immediate source of supply to him, at the cost of a postal card or at most a telegram. He loses nothing, therefore, from being overstocked. The article is a simple one, for which there is a constant demand as for wheat or flour, and the merchant can, therefore, sell at the minimum rate of profit.

Elder Down Quills at F. C. Baker's. A Sheriff's sale of land will be held at the court house on Saturday next.

Ladies Jacket and Ulsters at Stewart's.

Charley Norton has resumed his old position at T. O. Davis' general store.

An endless variety in Stationery, Picture Books, Xmas Tree Ornaments and Novelties at G. W. Baker's.

A large party of men with supplies of all kinds leave for Moose & Meadow Lake Thursday morning. The large amount of snow in the road this winter will make hard getting around for both men and mules.

Farmers and Mechanics—Provide yourselves with a bottle of Pain-Killer. It is a prompt, safe and sure cure for many ills. It may save you days of sickness, and you will find it more valuable than gold. Buy one now, has the genuine Perry Davis Pain-Killer and take no other mixture. 25c. is a Cheap Doctor's Bill.

For Out Meat, Corn Meal, Rolled Oats, and Groceries, call on F. W. Shea's.

The Holiday edition of "Tales from Town Topics," which is No. 5 of the series, shows an increase and contains, in addition to the collection of stories, poems and witticisms culled from the well-known journal itself, an original novelette, seventy-two pages in length, entitled "The Sale of a Soul." The novelette is by C. M. S. McLeish, and it relates a story of metropolitan life in which a beautiful girl is raised from a Bowery position to the highest place in New York and London society.

Local editor "The Sale of a Soul" is highly entertaining, while the life story, magazine, and novel from Town Topics is the most brilliant and graceful description—Town Topics, 21 West Twenty-third Street, New York.

Wagon's Guide for December is a book that usually welcome issue. It contains the new C. P. R. time card in detail, as also those of the N. W. Pacific Ry., the Manitoba & N. W. Western, and Great Northern & Central, and indicates the mail changes, new Post Offices opened and strike connections. The list of County Court, sitting for 1924, is also given, and most month a new map of the districts recently defined a diaking, effect on the 1st of January will be issued. All interested in land and municipal matters will find the table for Municipal officers and districts most useful in its matters, while the Dominion Land Office and Registrar's Districts carefully record all changes. The sailings and rates of passage on all Atlantic Steamships, are fully shown and a table of through connections overall lines to Chicago, New York, etc., afford at a glance an easy guide to what is to many a complex and mysterious investigation to trace one's route. We cannot do better than recommend this as a favorable time for all to value a practical and useful business Guide to subscribe.

"German Syrup"

G. Gloger, Druggist, Watertown Wis. This is the opinion of a man who keeps a drug store, sells medicines, comes in direct contact with the patients and their families, and knows better than anyone else how remedies sell, and what true merit they have. He hears of all the failures and successes, and can therefore judge: "I know of no medicine for Coughs, Sore Throat, or Hoarseness that had done such effective work in my family as Boschee's Sore Throat, German Syrup. Last winter a lady called Hoarseness, at my store, who was suffering from a very severe cold. She could hardly talk, and I told her about German Syrup, and that a few doses would give relief, but she had no confidence in patent medicines. I told her to take a bottle, and if the results were not satisfactory I would make no charge for it. A few days after she called and paid for it, saying that she would never be without it in future as a few doses had given her relief."
